LENDS 984,960,000 YUAN, GIVES QUARTERS TO 1,186 DESTITUATES -- Wen-hui Pao, 28 Jan 50

Kuang-chou -- The Winter Relief Committee of the Kuang-chou People's Government stated that since 13 January 1950, 1,186 destitute people in Kuang-chou had been given quarters and 984,960,000 yuan lent to the city populace to help them start home handicraft industries.

The loan was given to 6,000 families at no interest. Each family received from 120,000 to 320,000 yuan. The quartering of the destitute people began on 13 January and ended on 22 January. They were placed in three assembly centers.

Each person who received quarters was given DDT delousing spray, haircut, and bath. Among the destitute people were 19 suffering from infectious diseases and other serious illnesses.

KUANG-CHOU UNEMPLOYED REQUEST AID -- Wen-hui Pao, 30 Jan 50

Kuang-chou, 29 January -- More than 110 unemployed youths in this city held a meeting today and decided to organize an unemployed youth association and to request aid from local authorities, including study courses which will train them to secure better jobs.

The unemployed group blamed their present predicament on the existence of smuggling activities, and on dismissals of workers and business shutdowns before the liberation.
